

Getty Tour and Lunch

Thursday, Dec. 9th

Women's Painters West is happy to announce a special tour of the Getty Center on Thursday, December 9th starting at 11 a. m.

We will meet on the plaza where you exit the tram. Please arrive early and meet by the L'Air by Aristide Maillol. The one-hour tour begins at 11 a.m. by our private tour leader Ellen Greenberg. She has earbuds (UV cleaned) for us to hear her narration.

- The tour is primarily an art tour with architecture added as we walk through the highlights of the Getty Center. The tour also features the Renaissance artist Holbein.
- After the tour, we will lunch on the outside terrace below the plaza level. The Garden Cafe Court has a cafeteria that features sandwiches, salads, soup and main courses. Lunch is on your own.
- The minimum cost is $40: $20 for parking and $20 for the tour.
- To confirm your reservation, please make your payment NO LATER THAN NOV. 28TH by clicking on the PayPal link.
- You may want to setup car pools and share the parking cost.
- You must show proof of vaccination or have proof of negative COVID test within 72 hours of the visit. Masks are required indoors.
- For questions, please contact either Jeanne Iler (661) 678-0357 or Idelle Tyzbir (805) 657-9158
- If you are not going on the tour, you must register with the Getty for admittance.

After lunch, visit the other exhibits and use the phone app found on the Getty website.
