Greetings Fellow Artists!

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Greetings Fellow Artists!

Women Painters West 100th anniversary show, 'A Century of Women Artists', had an outstanding opening. Over the course of the evening hundreds of people came to view our beautiful and exciting work, including a local TV station. It is fascinating to see such varied styles that represent us! We should all be extremely proud of what we've accomplished over the last 100 years. It's our diligent work over time that has led us to this point in our history. If you didn't get a chance to come to the opening, please give yourself a treat and head over to the Brand Library. Congratulations to all who are participating in this show, to all of our Self-Portrait winners, to those who sold work on Saturday night, and to Diane Karpel and her team. Well done!!! And while we are celebrating our first centennial, remember, we are now beginning our next 100 years!!!

I need your feedback. The Board does a lot of work that you don't see. But an obvious visible example is preparing for our monthly meetings. We book speakers that we hope are of interest to our members. After meetings I get emails saying the speaker was fantastic, etc. And I really appreciate that. But here's the rub, if we don't hear from all of you that don't attend the meetings, we have no idea if we actually are booking speakers that you are interested in. What kind of speakers, demonstrators, interests, subjects are you interested in? Do you know of potential people that we might contact? Is the time of the meeting OK for you? If not, did you know we record and keep the meeting for 30 days and can send you a recording? While not every speaker and every meeting is going to be of interest to everyone, we can't do our job well without your input. I want you to email me, lizztuck@gmail.com, and let me know your thought and ideas. This is your group. We are all the stewards of WPW. Please reach out.

In December we will have a fantastic opportunity at the Getty, Brentwood. Our Special Events Chairs, Jeanne Iler and Idelle Tyzbir, have arranged a private art tour with just a touch of architecture thrown in. The tour will include parts of the special Holbein exhibit. You must

RSVP on our website via PayPal (under Donations) with your payment of $20.00 by November 28. Parking and lunch are extra, but we need a head count. Masks and proof of vaccines are required. We look forward to seeing you at the Getty!

Happy December and happy art making!

Lizz
