

Women's Painter West Visit to the MOCA Geffen Contemporary Art Museum

Thursday, December 8, 2022 at 2 p.m. for a guided tour by an educator, will be scheduled for your enjoyment.

Admission is Free! The tour is $10.00 per person.

The Geffen was a former police car warehouse in LA's Little Tokyo Historic District. It was renovated by architect Frank Gehry. The location offers 40,000 square feet of exhibition space.

The current shows are :

1. Judith Baca - World Wall mural
2. Garrett Bradley - American Rhapsody, a video
3. Iranian artist Tala Madani - Biscuits

If you are interested please sign up by Monday, Nov. 21st to pay the $10.00 tour fee. See WPW website for pay button.

We will meet at 12 noon at the Japanese Village for lunch. Just choose your own cafe or Sushi Bar. The walk to the Geffen is just a half block.

Parking is available at the Japanese Village and two other parking places:

1. Joes auto parks, 160 S. Central Ave.
2. 319 E. 2nd Street. LA - open 24 hours

The Geffen is located at 152 N. Central, Los Angeles.
Japanese Village is at 115 S. Central Ave., Los Angeles